SINCERE GRIEF IN NATIONAL CAPITAL AT WILSON DEATH

GREAT EMOTIONAL REACTION SWEEPS OVER WASHINGTON. PRAISED BY FOES Supreme Effort to Better International Morality Is Recognized.

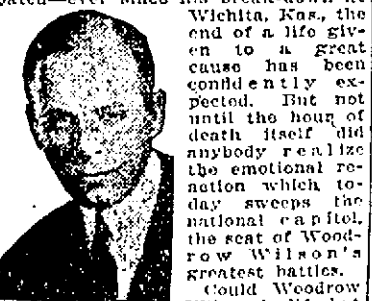

(By Radio to The Gazette)

Washington.—Woodrow Wilson has passed into history. Partisanship, an attribute of life's brief struggle, has vanished before death's mellowing influence. Republicans and Democrats, friends and foes politically, unite in recognition of the supreme effort made by a leader of world thought to raise the standards of international morality.

For four and a half years the death of Woodrow Wilson has been anticipated—ever since his breakdown at Wichita, Kan., the end of a life given to a great cause has been confidently expected. But not until the hour of his death has anybody realized the emotional reaction which today sweeps the nation.

Woodrow Wilson was a great man, a great leader, a great statesman. He was a man who had known the remarkable words of praise being given for his indomitable spirit, even by the men who were his bitterest opponents. The vindication which he looked for at the hands of posterity would have to an extent been his even thus early.

ELKHORN IS WITHOUT ITS LIGHT, POWER

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Elkhorn.—The Wisconsin Butler and Checco company had its electric power plant finished just in time. It started Monday, the day when the city lights and power were cut off. The plant is a stand-still for want of power; kerosene lamps and candles are in use in stores and homes, and cooking is being done in kettles on hand stoves. Broken power wires east of town made a protechton display Sunday night that was watched by many from the city. Each telephone and telegraph wire is badly jumbled. It is a condition not experienced for years past.

SIMPLICITY WILL MARK RITES FOR WOODROW WILSON

SPLendor OF OFFICIAL HONORS WILL BE ABSENT. POMP IS DENIED

Body Will Not Lie in State in Capital, as Planned Monday.

(By Associated Press)

Washington.—America's war president will be laid to rest here Wednesday, with a simplicity of religious services befitting the closing years of his life. No splendor of official honors will mark the entombment.

But while this decision was maturing among those he held closest to his heart, the name of Woodrow Wilson was again ringing around the world in an outpouring of tributes to a leader who had given life itself in service for mankind.

That was not so long ago, when that name kindled the war struck on millions of Europe to frantic hopes that the vision that shone in his eyes would be the end of the world's long night.

Through the lead of the Janesville Daily Gazette, the apparently hopeless predicament was extreme and not only the readers of the Gazette, but of many other newspapers, even as far as the Pacific coast had the news of the day.

Many months ago, the Gazette looked into the future with the background of past experiences with broken wires, and studied the mat-

THREE CONVICTS WHO FLED PRISON SHOT TO DEATH

(By Radio to The Gazette)

Jefferson City, Mo.—Three convicts who escaped from the Missouri penitentiary were shot to death in a hayrack today when a posse surrounded them in a hayrack in which they were hiding. The three were Tony Delbert, Miles Thomas and Jack McNeil.

They had one revolver between them which they used until shot down themselves. Heavy snow covered the ground and a deluge of rain falling five miles southeast of here discovered footprints in the snow of his barn and promptly informed the police.

A posse was organized hastily and its members armed with shotguns. They followed the tracks to the hayrack in which the three were hiding. As their shadows fell upon the snow the fugitives, from their one revolver, kept shooting until their cartridges were all gone.

Meanwhile the posse loaded shot into the hayrack from all sides until there were neither noise nor activities within. The posse found the fugitives huddled together. This was the effect of an 18 hour search for them started immediately after they had murdered the prison guard, James Hart, 62, and taken his revolver.

But if nobody does show up, bury me in one of your 325 caskets, as advertised." The other note was addressed to the police and all others concerned and said, "Every day, in every way, I'm getting worse and worse. Goodbye." START ATTACK ON HUGE ROAD DRIFTS

Tractor Goes to Work on Rte. 20—Blue Goose Crew Hits Out on No. 26.

With highways piled many feet deep with snow and blocked, the first attack upon them was to be made Tuesday afternoon in an effort to dig Janesville out of the nearest isolation.

The caterpillar tractor and plover used for experiments the past week was to be sent out to break a path on No. 26, toward Delafield. A force of men is to go with it. The Chamber believes the roads can be opened and this is one of the demonstrations it is taking to prove that it not only is practicable but necessary.

Start on Route 26.

While this work is progressing, another outfit with a large truck and blue plover was to get to work Tuesday afternoon on No. 26 to Milton and onward. This is being started through the route of the Blue Goose motor bus line. Ralph Bogann, stranded here when his train stalled as he was going from Duluth to Toledo, joined his father and Miss Irma Bogann in a campaign to open this road. Miss Bogann is manager of the bus line.

Miss Bogann Missing.

A large part of the efforts of the bus people is to endeavor to locate Miss Bogann. She went out with one of the buses and a crew at 11 p. m. Monday and has not been heard from since. It is believed she had passed Jefferson on her way to Watertown, but telephone communication above that place is impossible. One of the other buses of this line started from Watertown at 7 p. m. Monday, not three miles, and despite many teams of horses and men became exhausted and abandoned the machine, returning themselves to a farm house.

Big Drifts in County.

No buses are running Tuesday. The Strang bus line announced it was ready to start Wednesday to open the road to Monroe.

The fall of snow left drifts as deep as eight feet in many places in the country. There were some of five or more feet in town.

A temperature of 10 degrees above was recorded at 8 a. m., Tuesday. It was 12 above at noon.

HOWLING BLIZZARD BLOCKS ALL ROADS INTO JANESVILLE

TRAIN SERVICE DEMORALIZED BY WORST STORM OF YEAR. DAMAGE IS HEAVY Hundreds of Phone Poles Down—C. & N. W. Annals All Trains.

A blinding snowstorm, propelled by a heavy gale throughout Monday night and early Tuesday, resulted in an even worse situation in Janesville Tuesday than the previous day, with train service crippled, interurbans and street cars at a standstill, and buses to nearby towns discontinued. City streets and country roads were blocked by big drifts which defied vehicular traffic.

While the telephone and telegraph lines which were hardest hit by the windstorm of Sunday night and Monday morning, were affected by the snowstorm, the greatest trouble Tuesday was on the railroads, with the Chicago and Northwestern announcing annihilation of all trains "until further notice." Trains on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul are running and making an attempt to maintain schedules, but with trains from 10 minutes to more than two hours late.

No Freight Movement.

The Northwestern order here was without telegraphic communication to all points. The paper train due here at 5:15 from Chicago, arrived in Janesville at 8:45. Train 541 from Chicago, which ordinarily pulls into Janesville at 4:20, went through at 8:40 a. m. The train from Duluth Superior, No. 512, due 5:40, got here three hours later, Chicago trains No. 510 and 22, due from Madison at 8:20 and 10:25, arrived an hour late. No freight is being moved on either the Northwestern or St. Paul, according to local advice.

St. Paul Trains Late.

The St. Paul train, which on telegraphic communication, with service on the Mineral Point line, but none east of Milton. The telegraph wires on the Mineral Point line were repaired by a crew Monday. (Continued on page 5)

RADIO AGAIN MASTER OF NEWS DISTRIBUTION TODAY

With the east, separated from the west, the Pacific coast isolated, and no news coming except through Canada, the radio again to master of the news distributing field. Today the Gazette took news from two radio receiving sets—one at the Gazette office and the other at the Wisconsin Telephone Sales office. Two rapid stenographers transcribed the reports as they came rapidly over the wire. Then some of the eastern matter came by wire from St. Paul to which point it had been sent by way of Ottawa and Winnipeg. Canada's long roundabout course. But it came to the Gazette and landed in the columns for the readers of the paper tonight. All the night matter of the Associated Press, too, came to the Gazette early this morning, either by mail or relay over the radio. So the world before you is spread out for readers as usual.

KILLED COAL MAN, DISMEMBERED HIS BODY, IS CHARGE

(By Radio to The Gazette)

San Diego, Cal.—E. Clark of Virginia will be tried for the murder of George Shick, rich coal dealer, and the burning of his body because Shick objected to Clark's attentions to Mrs. Shick.

Jack Henderson, cellmate of Clark, claimed Clark confessed to him of the murder of Shick, when Shick called at the Mission Drive place, and drowned Shick down him, writing out a receipt for the amount. "The two men fought and Clark is alleged to have confessed that he choked Shick, a much smaller man, and then, terror-stricken, dismembered the body, first cutting off the legs from the knees down, then severing the trunk and the head from the torso.

A great fire then was kindled under the children in a canyon below the Mission Drive place, owned by Shick. The head of the dead man was placed in a boiler, together with the forepart of the legs, until the flesh was gone, according to the police. The head of the dead man, which Shick did not show where they had been broken so Clark is declared to have made an unsuccessful attempt to burn these bones. Failing in this endeavor, Clark is alleged to have told Henderson that he placed the head and the fore part of the legs of Shick in a wooden box.

Clark's authorities, however, do not know what disposal he made of the box with its gruesome contents. Neighbors in the vicinity of the Mission Drive house say they saw a fire about three days at the time of the alleged murder.

FIVE ARE PLACED ON ROLL OF HONOR

Four Men and One Woman Recognized by U. of W. for Farm Leadership.

(By Associated Press.)
Madison—Agricultural honors were conferred upon four men and one woman at the sixteenth annual Wisconsin awards at the College of Agriculture here Monday night. The awards were a feature of the annual Farmers' week now in progress at the college.

Those to whom the annual agricultural awards were made for outstanding accomplishments in agricultural lines were: A. W. Sanborn, Ashland county; C. E. McKinnis, Washington county; E. J. McKinnis, (three county); Henry Runkle, Kewaunee county; and Mrs. Fannie O. Brice, Richland county.

The Honor Roll.
The accomplishments of the various persons receiving the awards, as outlined by Dean H. L. Russell follow:

A. W. Sanborn, to make over the Moush territory, Bayfield county, near Ashland, from cut over land, one of the garden spots of the state, developing farms and pure bred cattle.

C. E. McKinnis, from school teacher and county supervisor to a successful business and export has been one of the accomplishments of McKinnis.

E. J. McKinnis, persistent worker throughout two decades for the bettering and building up of farm county into one of the principal centers of the state.

Henry Runkle, 71 year old worker for agricultural advancement and development of Kewaunee county.

Mrs. Fannie O. Brice, the only woman given an award this year, was described as follows: General country house and estate in Red Cross work has been the program of Mrs. Brice. These extra duties have not prevented her from being a home maker and a mother. She has served as school board clerk for 14 years in her home district.

A campaign for greater safety and safety devices on heavy farm machinery, particularly threshing machines, was urged by P. H. Newsum, Indianapolis, Ind., president of the Indiana Brotherhood of Threshersmen, in an address before the annual Farmers' week here today.

Statistics gathered by an insurance company, Mr. Newsum said, show that the accident toll with threshing machines has increased since 1916 from about one accident to each 12 to 14 machines to one or more accidents to each nine machines. Ten men were killed and 140 injured in threshing accidents in 1922. The number of accidents resulting in death or amputation, the speaker said.

Manufacturers and operators of heavy farm machinery have not in the past realized the dangerousness of such operations," Mr. Newsum said. "There is not a technical place of instruction for the operator of such machinery. The operator is supplied with additional safety devices for the protection of the workers. Operators, on the other hand, have given little or no attention to cautioning their workers for greater safety. Many rely upon the liability insurance for their protection but it would be much better to save lives by greater precaution."

This leaves a balance of $51,349.87 to be paid by all the other farm bureau service rendered in a hundred different ways," said Mr. Allen.

"In 1922, the Illinois Agricultural Association went before the State Commission with facts and figures showing unjust tax valuations and secured a reduction of six per cent on land valuations in comparison with state taxes," states Mr. Allen. "In De Witt county this meant a reduction of $686,882.26 in land valuation or $2,063.61 in tax reductions."

"During 1922, the De Witt County Farm Bureau made a tax investigation and in a hearing before the board of review, it was shown that farm land valuations were too high in comparison with valuations of town and city lots. The board made reductions and actual figures taken recently from the county tax books show that the taxes on farm lands in the 12 townships of the county have been reduced $35,463.81 compared with 1922."

This makes a total of $84,467.42 in tax reductions. Mr. Allen said, and it is an excellent sample of what farmers can do through organized effort.

Balloting on New Names for Streets, Nears Close

Suggestions of new street names for Janesville are still in order but if you haven't cast your ballot yet, you'd better hurry, for officialdom will select its selection within the next few days and the desire is that every one be given ample opportunity to register his choice.

From the expression of residents of Washington avenue, it is now almost a certainty that if any new street is to be named, it will be Washington. But to date there has been no unanimity of opinion as to what to call Center avenue, West of Center street, or Park avenue. There have been suggestions that both Center avenue and Park avenue be continued and that the names of Center street and Park street be changed instead. Those suggestions probably will be given serious consideration by the council.

West Bluff Excites Interest
Judging by the numerous communications reaching the desk of the Street Editor, West Bluff street's remaining seems to be exciting the greatest interest. The following suggestions have already been received for West Bluff: Croft avenue, Sunrise lane, Liberty avenue, Michigan avenue, Sheridan avenue, Grand avenue.

The latest suggestion of this arriving proposes the following new names for West Bluff street: Trinity street, West street, Poplar avenue, Rose Hill avenue, and Rockwell avenue. The suggestions are all good with the exception of the last. That is ineligible to competition because Janesville already has a Rockwell avenue, running between the city and Logan streets in the Sixth ward.

Wants "Nice Name"
These suggestions are contained in the following letter:
As I am a resident of the First ward, I should like to suggest the name of West Bluff street being called Poplar avenue, Rose Hill avenue, or Rockwell avenue. I should like to have a nice name as I am interested in this particular street.

"Property Owner" says: "I am not in favor of naming a street after a person who has never lived on or owned property on the street. I have lived in Janesville all my life and have never heard of the names mentioned in Saturday's Gazette as being those of people living in West Bluff street. Would be glad to hear of it being changed to West street, or Trinity street, or for some of the people who built homes and lived on West Bluff street in the early days when the street was named."

Another protest has been received.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach wards off indigestion and starts food fermentation; then our minds sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases, which inflame the stomach like a toy camp fire. We then feel that heavy, taste sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, while it is effervescent, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief often follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mucus, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of stomach sufferers with the most successful results.

FINANCIAL EFFORT UPSETS POLITICS

Intrigue Against Poincare Cabinet Again Strong in France.

(By Associated Press.)
Paris—Premier Poincare's efforts to steady the franc have completely upset the political situation in France. The measures the premier demands would adversely affect the fortunes of many members of the cabinet, but its effects are less apparent in the chamber where the premier still appears to be master of the situation.

The crisis will come early during the present week, when discussion of the question of full powers will bring about a test vote as to the rejection of proposals without discussion because they are deemed unconstitutional.

In political circles it is declared that the intrigues against the cabinet, which by common consent had been deferred until after the elections, again is growing strong. The radicals, republican socialists and socialists who are now in the coalition and who hope to regain a majority in the chamber and take power again were disinclined to cause if they did so, they would have to succeed it at a time when the responsibilities of government were less advantageous to their electoral interests than being in the opposition.

The premier's demand for full powers to effect economies have, however, so alarmed the radicals

Birth of Nation Showing Halted; Chief Is Cited

(By Radio to The Gazette.)
Chicago—For the second time in as many days, the police, acting under orders of Chief Collins, stopped a theater from showing "The Birth of a Nation." The house had been ordered to close the police arrived, took the operators from their booths and turned off the electric switches.

The complaint alleged the showing of the picture was in violation of the statute forbidding performances tending to foment class or race hatred.

Chief Collins has been cited for contempt by the theater management, which claims he violated an injunction obtained several days ago, when an attempt was made to halt a showing of the picture here.

STOP IT!

Make Your Own Cough Mixture for the Whole Family and Save Money. It's Easy.

When you can make in your own home a wonderful cough mixture far ahead of any you can buy ready made, why not do it?

This home made mixture will stop the most stubborn cough and is fine for chest colds and acute catarrh. Coughs love it.

Get from McCue & Russ or any druggist one ounce of Parment (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar—mix directed and enough water to make half a pint—that's all there is to it.

Like a soothing, healing poultice on a sore throat, this home made cough mixture spreads itself completely over the membranes of the throat. This causes the most stubborn hard-on cough to cease almost instantly. No ordinary slow-acting cough syrup contains this expensive ingredient.

that they are actively plotting in the lobby to bring about his downfall, taking advantage of the unpopularity of the new taxes to detach part of his majority. FACTS

Regarding Balloon Tires

The average motorist as yet has not conceived the true facts about Balloon Tires. The Association of Automobile Engineers has adopted four sizes as universally standard for Balloon Tires.

Which are as follows:

- 440 to replace all 3½-inch tires.
- 525 to replace all 4 -inch tires.
- 620 to replace all 4½-inch tires.
- 730 to replace all 5 -inch tires.

It is necessary to change wheel equipment in using standard Balloon Tires.

In addition to standard Balloon Tires, we also have low air pressure tires to fit your car without changing wheels or rims. If your present rims are clincher type, it will be necessary to make an inexpensive change to straight side rims.

We are in a position to equip all cars using 3½-in. tires with standard Firestone Balloon Tires for

$115.00

This includes new wheels, five rims and tire carrier.

We will dispose of your old equipment which will bring your cost considerably lower than $115.00.

Order your new equipment now for spring delivery.

We are now in our new location, across the street, (15 N. Franklin Street) formerly the Yahn Tire Sales, where we are equipped to give the highest conceivable service which includes vulcanizing and tire service in all its forms.

Come in and let us help you solve your tire troubles.

We carry a complete line of accessories.

FOR years we strove to reproduce in our garden vegetables that same fresh sweetness of flavor that we remember so well in the old white farm kitchen when the back garden yielded up its choicest for our table.

And now by dint of increasing care in choosing only the finest garden vegetables in sections famous for their yield and aided by science in the most modern canning methods, we will present under the AUNT NELLIE label Garden Vegetables of known quality and uniformity.

The Wagon Wheel

By WILLIAM PATTERSON WHITE

Copyright 1923 by Little, Brown and Company, Boston. Serial rights from McClure Newspaper syndicate.

The sheriff had crossed the room, thumb on the latch of a door opening into an inner room. There was an angry grin on his face, but when he opened the door he found at the door. Then he spoke. "Yes," he said in a tone of triumph with triumph. "Yes, we're all here." He turned and opened the door. In a moment he came out carrying a bride and dragging by the horn a heavy stock saddle. The ox-horn straps and the leather of the flung the saddle and bride across the table.

"Take a look at that saddle and bride, Hicks," ordered the sheriff, "and tell me whose they were."

"Were," repeated Tom, getting to his feet. "Were."

"You'll know what I mean after you've looked at that saddle. Take a good look. Don't be afraid of it."

"No," remarked Tom, "it won't bite you, Tom."

"That'll be about all from you, Bill," sneered the sheriff. "There'll be no prompting of witnesses in my office. I want everybody to understand that this is an unprejudiced examination."

"So there's a witness in here," said Tom. "This is really serious, huh? No joking? Shucks, I thought you were feeling all right. What's the matter with you? You seem to be finding that saddle a mighty bony ford."

For Tom Hicks was looking from the saddle to the sheriff and back again with a look of deep perplexity on his customarily good-natured countenance. Pap and Sim were grinning the wide grin so much affected by the well-known Cheshire cat.

"What the—?" began the sheriff, striding to the table. "You know that saddle, Tom? Who is it?"

Tom shook his head. "I don't know I never saw it before."

"What's the matter with you? Gone blind or what? Of course you've seen it before. This is the Thompson's saddle, and here's his bride. Take hold of it, man! Look at it close! Know it now, don't you? Why?"

"Before, here!" broke in Derr. "There'll be no prompting of the witness in this office. I want everybody to understand that this is an unprejudiced examination."

But the sheriff was too upset to pay any attention to trivialities. Red-faced and angry, he flung the bride at Tom Hicks and snatched the saddle for himself. He then turned to Tom Hicks and said, "You know that saddle, Tom? Who is it?"

Tom Hicks stood back. The twinkle was gone from his brown eyes. "I don't know what you're driving at, Sheriff. But I tell you that I ain't gonna say what ain't so for you or any other damn man. Neither that saddle nor that bride ever belonged to Sile Thompson."

"Damn it, they've got to belong to Sile Thompson!"

Dinner Stories

A man who is interested in social work went into a tenement district and, wishing to see a certain man, had having only a general idea as to where he lived, approached a small boy for information.

"My boy," he said, "can you show me where Mr. Lankovitch lives?"

"Yes, sir," was the quick reply of the boy, pointing to a door.

"This is the door," said the boy, wisely looking for the coin. "Mr. Lankovitch lives in there."

"Looks as if we had had hard luck," remarked the visitor, peering into the room. "Mr. Lankovitch doesn't appear to be here."

"No, sir," was the rejoinder of the boy. "That was him sitting down on the front doorstep where we came in."

A negro order in Georgia borrowed the name and insignia of a popular white lodge, thus making confusion. The white lodge promptly went into court with a restraining order. The issue was carried on appeal to the highest courts of the state, where the attorney for the plaintiffs appeared to ask that the injunction be made permanent. He was addressing the full bench.

"Why, if your honor please," he stated excitedly, "these negroes not our pass words, our halling signs, our secret work, our badges, our emblems."

The chief justice leaned forward with a smile upon his face. "It would appear," he said, "that they also got your goat."

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRON

Mrs. Eldron is happy to advise all mothers about the care of their children of any age, or on any subject which does not help in the field of the doctor.

THE PROSPECTIVE MOTHER

A mother carrying her first child is susceptible to all kinds of nervousness, due largely to the unfamiliar phenomena in no sense unnatural to her condition, but unnatural to her experience. If she listens to persons of morbid mind, who are ready to read into every symptom some pathological condition, she will be much upset, while if she will determine to view things to which she is unused as merely incidental to her condition she will throw off a lot of worries which hinder her and make her worse.

She must expect to be nervous. She must expect some small depression of humor, especially the first few weeks. She must expect to be a trifle doped, and have an unusual secretion of urine and some headache. All these symptoms will usually disappear within a few weeks and if she is healthy and normal her shadow will be healthy and normal her shadow.

Heart and Home Problems

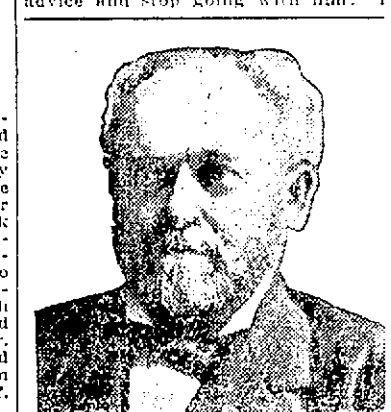

Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, In Care of the Gazette.

ASHAMED

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a fellow nine years older than I am for about two weeks. I like him very much and I think he likes me from the way he talks and also his manner. He has taken me to his home several times, but it seems that I am not at all at home. He has asked me to call at his home, but I feel embarrassed in telling him that I haven't a nice home, and so I haven't taken him. In my circumstances how can I tell if he really loves me?

He has told me that he loved me but if he found the real truth of the matter, do you think he would continue liking me? He has talked of marriage but I feel that our love will not continue.

My parents do not want me to go with him. Should I take my parents' advice and stop going with him?

FIFTY YEARS AGO

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many towns and cities because of his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called his "Favorite Prescription," and placed it with the druggists in every state.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseases peculiar to womenkind. After suffering pain, feeling nervous, dizzy, weak and dragged down by weakness of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.

More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's called An-Kuric for kidneys and backache, has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joints or muscles have been completely conquered by its use.

Said the Dr. to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial of any of his remedies, or write for free medical advice.

ANSWERED LETTERS

L. G. P.—Eczema should be treated by a doctor, as its cause is often quite obscure. I should think that an application of vinegar would irritate the eruption, and make it much more unbearable.

Biting for white hair should only be used for the final rinsing, and the amount should be about equal to which you would use for laundering.

A cold cream that is made from almond oil should be excellent.

Y. D. R.—I shall be glad to send you information on dieting for reduction, if you forward a stamped, self-addressed envelope in which to mail it. You will not suffer from hunger when you understand how to select the right foods, and those which do not fatten will be quite satisfying to your appetite. Grapefruit is not fattening. Avoid white potatoes, white bread, pork and all sweets.

Mrs. J. A. P.—Eczema is the best to use. I think you have in mind a trade preparation in which dye and henna are mixed. If you substitute cerise in the soap by massaging it vigorously every day, it is quite possible that the coloring in your hair will be so improved that you will have no need to tint it.

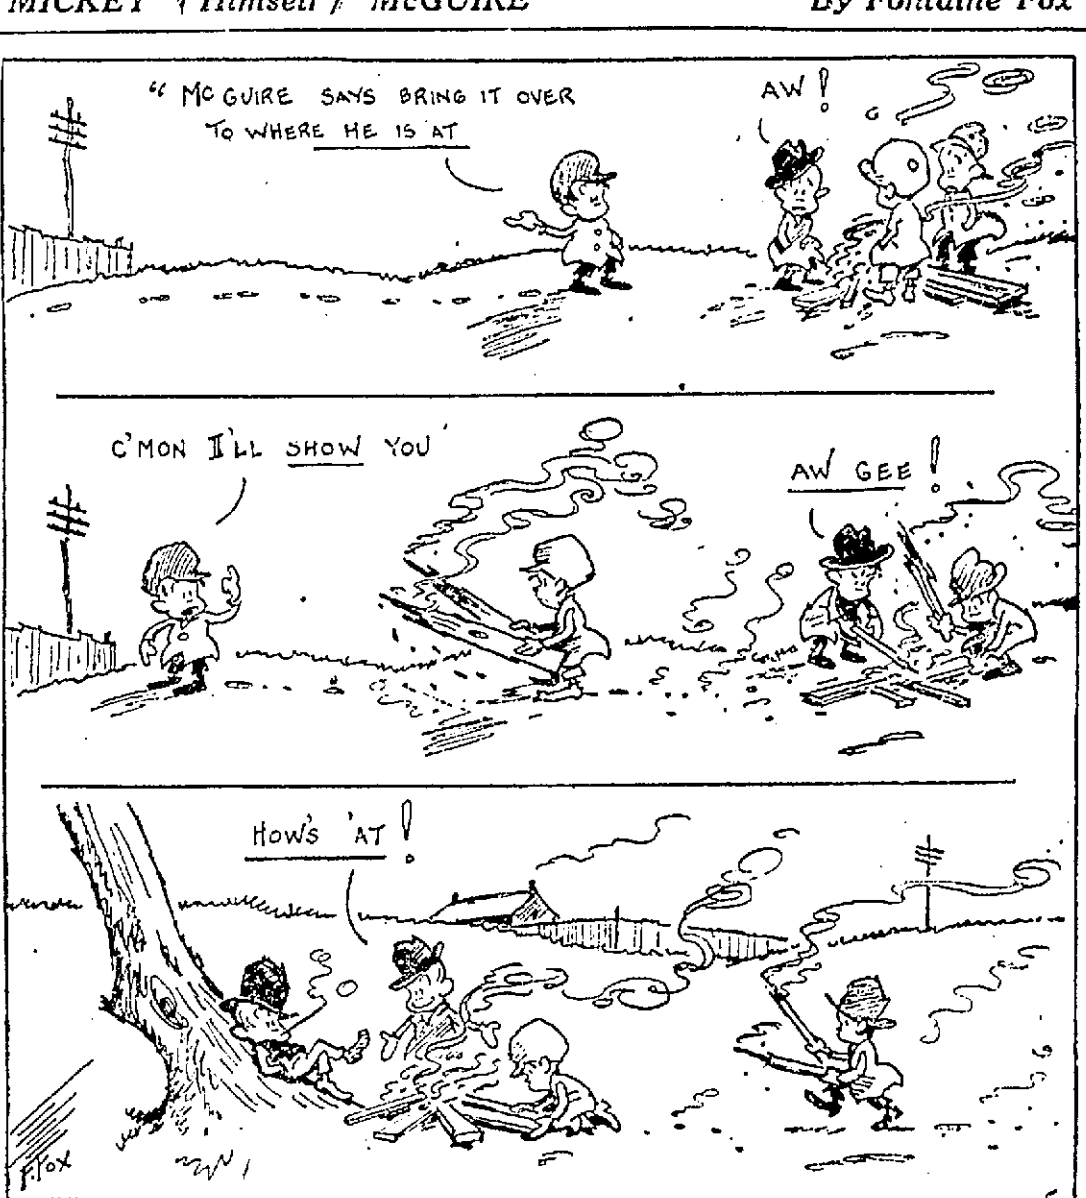

Robert—Your trouble comes from losing your sense of touch, but by taking a little self-consciousness, but as you remain it so quickly when you hear your own voice, I should think anything that does your action from self, even that of taking a very deep breath, would carry you over the trying instant. When you are called to take dictation, begin by taking a deep breath, and then unit you become absorbed in your work. Put a little bit of bitter aloes under nails, and the unpleasant taste will remind you to stop biting them.

Mollie B.—A simple and effective exercise for reducing all the muscles of the back, including those of the following: Stand with feet together and take a deep breath while raising the arms forward and over the head, then exhale while bending forward from the hips, keeping knees and elbows stiff until fingers touch the floor. Repeat the exercise a number of times until you feel that all the muscles have been properly exercised.

V. C. B.—There is no way to keep your blond hair from growing darker. A Alesopool of lemon juice to each quart of water in the final rinse after shampooing will help. Sunshine and air will also help to keep the hair lighter. You can brighten the shade if it is lifeless by using henna carefully; this will

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Really and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes time in the preparation, but gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, and mix with 1 pint of water, add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Boil for 10 minutes, then strain through a cloth. It tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Notice: better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

figure, greeted him in the great cathedrals of Europe. The world hangs upon his words as seldom, if ever before upon the utterance of any man.

Will Rest in Vault.

And yet, after another day, he will be laid to rest for a space in a marble vault on the hills overlooking the city. The shouting and clamor ended for him and with it all the pomp and circumstance of greatness of place when the heavy burden of the presidency slipped from his tired shoulders nearly three years ago.

That was the decision reached late Monday by Mrs. Wilson. The day after her long, brave fight for her stricken husband's comfort and peace could not end, even with his death. Upon her must fall the duty of decision as to the manner and place of entombment, the weighing of the claims of the nation to pay highest honors to the dead against her knowledge of his dislike of the show and stir of heavy ceremonies.

The whole machinery of government stood ready to surround the fallen chieftain with all the honors men have devised to tender their great dead. President Coolidge placed every agency at his command at the disposal of the bereaved family in arranging for the funeral. The army, navy and marine corps stood ready to play their part in a great pageant of sorrow such as only men who have been commanders in chief of America's fighting forces may know.

There were those in high places who argued strongly that it was best that Woodrow Wilson, the war president, should be given up for a time in death to the keeping of his countrymen, that he might be rendered the home they would do him for the greatness of the place he had held. For his entombment was offered that shrine of American patriotism, the Memorial Amphitheater at Arlington, where America's cathedral looms partly completed over the city from the ridge of hills to the west. But there could be no questioning of Mrs. Wilson's wishes.

As the plans stand today, there was little still to be arranged beyond the precautions necessary to keep the way clear from the house to the cathedral. It is scarcely more than a mile up the broad sweep of Massachusetts avenue to the gray stone edifice that, even in its uncompleted state, just boldly up against the western sky line of the city. Along that roadway soldiers, sailors and marines will be stretched to aid the police in keeping back the crowds, and these and the 21 non-commissioned men marching beside the hearse will be all the united services can do to honor the bier of this former commander in chief.

Bethlehem Chapel lies beneath the main floor line of the cathedral, of which only the imposing eastern facade is yet in place.
